Office Order

As proposed by livestock theme, approval had been accorded for printing of certain books/registers related to the theme. Agency for printing & supply of the same had been selected through due process of procurement. But when the agency submitted sample of the printed material, it was observed by the theme that size of sample is not as per requirement.

In such situation, the theme submitted proposal for cancellation of earlier procurement process and also for approval on printing of material with modified size. Approval for cancellation of procurement process finalized earlier and initiation of fresh procurement process has been accorded with a caution to the theme to be particularly careful in future with regard to the size of material to be printed.

By the order of CEO,

(Braj Kishore Pathak)
Officer on Special Duty
