OFFICE ORDER

Financial inclusion theme of SPMU has received some requests from DPCUs and other stakeholders. This is related to different kinds of administrative support required for smoothing of the day to day functions. Based on the facts mentioned, approval has been accorded for the following aspects by the competent authority:

- Number of organizations which have been making their name and presence felt in Bihar are approaching Jeevika for the internship of their students. A request has been received from Central University of South Bihar (School of Social Sciences and Policy) to provide internship to two students namely Amrita Singh and Shilpi Kumari Yadav. Approval has been given for allowing their internship with stipend of Rs 5000 (Rs. Five Thousand Only) for a month.
- PC-FI/COO-DDUGKY has been delegated with responsibility to approve up to maximum of ten interns in FY 2019-20 for internship based on the prudent requirement. The stipend for all such cases will be Rs 5000 (Rs. Five Thousand Only) per month.
