Office Order

Mapping of youths of SJY households for Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Grameen Kaushalya Yojna (DDU-GKY)

SJY is specifically working on the principle of graduation approach for enhancing the livelihoods of ultra-poor. By now, CBOs have endorsed more than 1 lakh ultra-poor households being provided handhold support in enterprise development, livestock & agricultural support for livelihoods promotion.

Under Satat Jeevikoparjan Yojna (SJY), we are moving towards skills upgradation of youth of SJY targeted households. The skill development training and placements will be provided through Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Grameen Kaushalya Yojna (DDU-GKY).

DDU-GKY has been working with dual objectives of adding diversity to the incomes of rural poor families and cater to the career aspirations of rural youth. The training program includes Retail sales associate, Hospitality management, Data entry operator, Logistics and courier sector, Food and beverage services and Retail store management, etc.

BRLPS (Jeevika) has been given the responsibility to implement DDU-GKY in the rural areas of Bihar. With this opportunity it is planned to piloting with five districts for skill development of youths of SJY HHs. The piloting districts are as below: -

- 1) Katihar
- 2) Purnia
- 3) Kishanganj
- 4) Nawada
- 5) Madhepura

District nodals of concerned districts are required to identify and map out such youths of SJY households who are eligible and interested for the skill training and placements. In order to prepare the data bank (mapping out eligible youths) of SJY Households, the details need to be shared in the format attached herewith (Annexure-1) by 28th feb.2021 through email at Kranti\_yp@brlp.in and gjalibharti19@gmail.com

After mapping of youths, Kaushal Panjee need to filled by the concerned JRPs for which also a separate format is attached herewith (Annexure-2) which need to be submitted at the concerned BPIU by 5th Mar.2021. Manager-Jobs will co-ordinate with SJY District nodals. JRPs should also coordinate with SJY MRPs in mobilization of Youths.
