Office Order

BRLPS has hired MIS executives for the purpose of digitization through CLFs. MIS Executive will be the staff of the CLFs, hence, tax on her/his honorarium is subject to provision of Section 192 of Income Tax Act, 1961 and would be deductible only if her/his honorarium in Financial Year exceeds the limit prescribed under the IT Act.

Presently the honorarium of MIS Executive is within the prescribed limit; hence no tax would be deducted from honorarium of MIS Executive at CLF level. However, concerned CLFs/Nodal VOs will collect the declaration in Form 15 G of IT Act, 1961 from the MIS Executive.

Also, the concerned CLF/Nodal VO through which MIS Executives have been hired can initiate the payment from their level, without waiting for PAN/TAN, etc. These documents are required for registration and other related activities. The approval on this has been taken by the competent authority.
